Psych My Caucus

By: Billy Roper

During this pre-election season, we've all heard and read a lot about both of the major party caucuses, particularly in early primary states. In each of them, the Republican and Democratic party faithful will gather to vote for a nominee from their respective parties. The candidate with the most number of delegates in total gathered from the caucuses of all of the states when the Party conventions end will be the nominee for their party this November.

Within political movements and causes, a subset of concerned activists with shared values intended to reform or direct that cause may also be referred to as a caucus. During the second half of the January 16th, 2016 Divine Truth Ministries radio program, I discussed the emergence of a unified caucus within White Nationalism. This dedicated subset of patriotic activists share concern over how our movement is portrayed through the controlled media, especially when it comes to how White Nationalists ourselves either reinforce or dispel those negative stereotypes which serve as barriers between ourselves and the as yet uninspired and uncommitted White Americans who might potentially be sympathetic to our cause.

This caucus is determined to put our best face forward to our people, in the interests of our ultimate victory. For this reason, we are determining not to allow public events with a specific message and purpose, such as the Rock Stone Mountain rally coming up in Georgia this April 23rd, to be hijacked into something counter-productive by those more interested in posturing to inflate their own egos than in doing what is in the best interests of our cause and our race.

Now, I have more ink than most people, much of it overtly racial, including swastikas and life runes. My right arm works just as well as anybody else's in achieving the desired angle of salute. I've been a skinhead and fought in the street, and made more radical and extreme public statements than Joseph Goebbels. But I am, above all, a pragmatist. Discipline is remembering what it is that we really want. I think that we all can agree that what we really want is not to preach to the choir, or try to impress each other with how hardcore we are. Our goal is not to shock or intimidate people, or compete for Brownshirt points. What we really want, is to secure the existence of our people, and a future for White children. To me, anything that makes that ultimate goal more likely is a good thing, and anything that makes it harder to achieve, whether it makes us feel good or not, is a bad thing.

Does waving a swastika flag and saluting the media and Anti-Whites make it easier for us to reach conservative but unradicalized Whites, or harder? Does it make them respect us, to imagine themselves standing with us in the future, or does it make them shut down and discount anything that we have to say as being, well, unAmerican and unpatriotic and dangerous? The masses have a feminine psyche, no disrespect intended, ladies. That means that the message that appeals to them is one which promises protection, order, stability, defensive compassion, and love. I'm not at all advocating that we lie about or water down our ideals. Far from it. But every parent knows that you'll experience little success trying to feed your baby steak and teach her algebra. She hasn't cut the teeth for it yet, and it's beyond her learning curve. What she needs, is Gerbers and simple addition. Likewise, our people really don't need to hear about the Holocaust, what they need to hear is that White Lives Matter. Again, we have a responsibility to put the feed down there where the chickens can get at it. If we don't, aren't we just participating in, excuse me, self-congratulatory egoism?

This isn't a hobby. It isn't dress-up. It's about the future of our race. If we win, then I don't really care what flag our grandchildren are waving on Victory Day. I don't care how we get there. If we lose, then nothing we say or do will matter to the mongrels who will inherit the Earth. But I ask that we each, myself included, do some introspection and soul searching, and like the Scottish poet said, try to see ourselves as others see us. If you were a mainstream, politically conservative White family man or housewife, and saw or heard your own actions and statements, would you be the kind of person that you'd want to be standing beside at the next rally? Would you be someone they would take seriously, and be encouraged and inspired by? Would you be the kind of person they would trust around their children?

I feel that one of our most important goals is to inspire those who aren't quite there with us yet in their understanding of the threats our people face to be more courageous and forthright. We say what many of them already think. We can safely say things more radical than they might, so they feel freer to say things a bit less radical than us, but still more radical than what they would otherwise ever say, on their own, without our example and encouragement. But does our example embolden them, or scare them away?

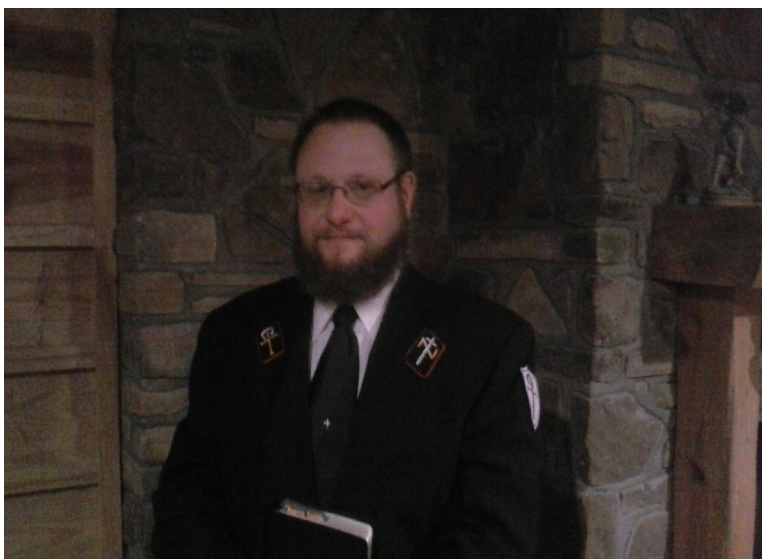

Not all of you may think of yourselves as potential recruiters or examples for our people to follow and emulate. Some of you may think of yourselves as warriors, and God knows we will need plenty of warriors, too, and many who serve one role now will serve another when times change, as they inevitably will. But for now, I think we all know that we need more of our people to either join us, to stand with us, or at least to be sympathetic enough to our cause to just get out of our way. Are we creating sympathy for our cause, or hostility towards it? The effect is what matters. The ends justify the means. Winning is what counts. Discipline is remembering what it is that we really want.

There's another emerging caucus we need to have in mind, in everything we say and do. White Americans who are even slightly racially conscious, even if they aren't politically active, at least not yet, are our future caucus, our subset of the race most worth reaching out to, most worth saving, and most likely to be saved. They are the ones most likely to decide to stand with us in the future. Let's not make that decision harder for them by seeming less like them. Our job is to make it easier for them to come over and join us. Our job is to psych that caucus.

Let's win.

Letter from Supporters

Dear Divine Truth Ministries,

For years now I have been looking for an organization that places Yahweh first and foremost above all other things. I have followed Pastor Mullet since 2010 and have always enjoyed his message, and the way he speaks from the heart. I have found within him and this organization a true dedication and a desire to see our racial cause turn into a movement once again. There have been so many other “leaders” that have taken so much from people and have given little in return, and with Divine Truth Ministries I see real hope for our Christian Identity People, something that has been lost for so many years.

Please find my application for membership enclosed with this letter. I can only hope that with time I too can bring about change here in North Carolina.

Pastor Mullet,

Greetings in the name of Yahweh, just wanted to say thank you for all the hard work and dedication that you and the other staff members are doing for our Race. You and Mr. Roper are an inspiration to all of us here in Indiana, and we hope that one day our unit can bring pride to you and the Divine Truth Ministries.

Divine Truth Ministries,

Thank you for bringing this once lost soul back to the true meaning of being a child of Yahweh our father and helping me find the true meaning of being an Aryan Warrior. With your dedication to our Racial Family, and all your teaching and taking the time to answer all of my questions you have shown a dedication that I have not been able to get from other Pastors in the CI faith. You are a true Soldier of God, and a dedicated person of the Christian Identity Faith and Yahweh has granted you all a blessing, one that will bring forth the fruit of the tree.

Pastor Paul,

There are very few remaining Christian Identity pastors out there nowadays and even fewer that will respond to inmates. Thank you for taking the time out of your busy day to respond to those behind the wire and a special thank you for responding to use with handwritten letters. That Sir is something that is not done any more and has not been done since Pastor Butler’s time. Normally if we get a response from these “pastor’s” it is typed. You have been there for me for over 5 years and have given me encouragement and hope when there have been walls of darkness, thanks for all you have done not only for me but for our Brothers and Sisters, you are a true man of Yahweh.

From the Minister of Security

Dear members of the Divine Truth Ministries and the Nation of True Israel, Greetings in the name of Yahshua the Christ. I bring too you this evening greetings from our Lord and King of King Yahweh our Heavenly Father!

My name is Thomas Ritter and I am your Security Minster. Many of you know who I am and even know my real name so to you I say hello and to those who do not know me I say I know who you are and that you will know of me soon enough.

My job within this glorious Church Body and political organization is to provide security both on grounds and off grounds during and after public and private events to insure that our leadership is protect from would be attacks from both within and without the organization (yes there are those that would see harm fall upon these men from within) those planted by the serpent seed of our enemy, both of the jew and those that claim to be the seed of our Heavenly Father but are nothing more than henchmen for the snakes of the vermin satan.

As spring and summer time draws upon us we will be doing some training and maneuvers so you as members can better prepare yourselves for events that may came upon us as we prepare to take to the streets in defense of our Racial Pride, and defense of our women and children. We will be practicing the art of hand to hand combat and escape and evading, the art of tracking and survival in both urban and rural areas.

My background has been 10 years in the military and I will leave it at that. I will not disclose the branch nor what I did while in the military. I served this country, I am proud that I did, but I am horrified that I served a Country that has turned its back on the service men and women and the Aryan men and women who have paid the price with their blood only to have it handed over to the very people we have fought and died against. This country is no longer for us the White Race but is now a ces pool. A mongrelized country that is hell bent on the total annihilation of the Aryan Race, and is led by the parasitic jew. If you cannot see this, you are part of the problem and your time is also numbered.

So member prepare yourselves for our work is about to begin as we journey towards a new beginning and a New Foundation Stone, and let this year be a true and very attainable YEAR OF THE CHRISTIAN IDENTITY CAUSE and let us THE DIVINE TRUTH MINISTRY AND THE NATION OF TRUE ISRAEL MAKE THIS CAUSE INTO A MOVEMENT ONCE AGAIN LET US THE TRUE SEED OF ADAM BRING FORTH VICTORY TO OUR RACIAL PEOPLE ONCE AGAIN AS WE SAY VICTORY FOREVER AND FOREVER VICTORY!

From the deepest parts of KY

The Term "Jew" (by Kevin Conway)

I think a little research in Strong's Exhaustive Concordance would help a little in this matter. I want to elaborate on this for just a minute. This word "JEW" is a pain in my neck. First off you can't find "Jew" anywhere in the original languages, so we need to stop using this tool which is employed by the Edomite hook-nosed kikes - for they are the literal offspring of Lucifer.

Starting in the Old Testament we find the very first mention of the word "Jew" (a mistranslation) in Second Kings 16:6 (KJV). The word is translated "Yehuwdiy," (Hebrew #3064) which means: "a Jehudite (i.e. Judaite)" or "descendant of Jehudah (Judah). This was used in the context of someone in the lineage of Judah - a RACIAL term for the tribe of Judah!

The next occurrence for this tricky term, comes when we get to the book of Ezra which is after the release from the Babylonian Captivity. The two-tribed Southern Kingdom (with a remnant of Levi) returns to the land of Canaan to rebuild their city of Jerusalem and reinstitute their Spiritual worship of obedience to Yahweh. We find that the word Jew again appears in Ezra 4:12, 23; and 5:1,5. This is "Yehuwdaiy" (Hebrew #3062), meaning: "Jehudaite (or Judaite." This word comes from the root - Yehuwd (#3061) meaning: "Judah, hence Judea." So we see that when we read all these passages we can see that it is talking about the descendants of Judah unless specified as the land of Judea. This gives us a clear distinction of context.

BUT when we get to the New Testament we find that the term Jew is a territorial distinction much like calling someone an American today. So let us get started with a brief glimpse into the 400 years between the Testaments... We read about the Maccabe-an (true descendants of Judah) conquest of the neighboring Edomite/Canaanite nation known as Idumea in 125 B.C. When the Maccabean Priest, King Hyrcanus won the war in 121 B.C. he offered this mixed multitude of Canaanites, (the Satanic Seedline of Genesis 3:15), full citizenship into the Nation of Judea for nothing more than a promise to circumcise! SO NOW we have Canaanites masquerading as Israelites... Hello?

Usage in the New Testament for the term "Jew(s)" is translated from the Greek word Ioudaios (#2453), meaning: "Judean, i.e. belonging to Jehudah." This Greek word Ioudaios appears to be a geographical indicating an area of residence. Thus, those in Judea were "Judeans" - those from Galilee were known as Galileans, Samaritans, etc. Furthermore, the term Judea is translated from the Greek word Ioudaia (#2449) meaning: "the Judean land."

This is why we have to pay close attention to the context of the Scripture when identifying who is being referred to as a Jew(s). A negative connotation refers to the hook-nosed kikes (false Pharisees) which we see in the Book of John 7:11-13, which states, "Then the Jews sought Him (Jesus) at the Feast (of Tabernacles), and said, Where is He? And there was much murmuring among the people concerning Him (the Christ): for some said, He is a good man: others said, No; but He deceives the people. Howbeit no man spoke openly of Him for fear of the JEWS.

When the Apostle Paul preached that there was neither Jew nor Greek... He was telling them that there was no difference between an Israelite of the land of Judea and a Greek (Exiled "Lost" Tribes of Israel) which had come from a false teaching of mythology. I look forward to some feedback. Yahweh Bless!

Minister of Communications

Greetings in the name of Yahweh!

I have spent a lot of time thinking, of what I should write this article about. After some thought and a lot of writing, deleting then rewriting I decided to do what I should have at first. So, I prayed for some guidance and this is what came to me.

I'm going to give you some background on me and how I came to be the person I am today. Some would say, that's when I became racially aware. However, I've always been aware, I just didn't know why. At least not until I meet some fellow brother's who were Christian Identists. They gave me some literature to read and study. This is when I truly found out what I was missing in my life.

They helped open my eyes and introduced me too a whole new world. I came to know, Yahweh was putting these brother in my life to guide me closer the Divine Truth. Through my journey I came in contact with someone who has been a good brother and friend (Pastor Paul Mullet). This is when I decided I was going to start helping out and get involved in the movement.

Unfortunately, my time in the free world was limited because I was on the run. It wouldn't be long before the great state of Texas caught up with me and I was put behind the wire for a while. I decided to use my time to gain as much knowledge as I could. I did a lot of reading, I read everything I could get my hands on about Christian Identity and the movement. Through the years Pastor Mullet and I stayed in contact with each other. He kept me up to date with things that were going on with the movement and other things of interest. Finally Texas decided they had me long enough, I was released back to the free world where I could pick up where I left off.

I was out less than a week when I touched base with Pastor Mullet and got back on track. I've been out now for a little over 1 year. There's been a lot going on out here in this short period of time. There has been some major changes, some I feel were for the best, some maybe were not, only time will tell. What I can tell you is, we will keep spreading Yahweh's message to all who have the ears to hear it. I'm proud to be here, in the position I'm in to help get this message to you.

Joining the Divine Truth Ministries has been the greatest move I have ever made, it has brought clarity and completion to my life, and I pray that it will bring it to your life as well.

Hail Our Victory!

Minister of Communications,

Charlie Alsabrook

Here's Your Award

Black 'comedian' Chris Rock has said that he might drop out of his role in the Academy Awards program wherein Hollywood's actors and actresses honor one another because, in his estimation, too many of the nominees are White. Spike Lee and Jada Pinkett Smith both seem to agree that they would be better off if their ancestors had been left in Africa, an alternative history which this author would have preferred, as well. But Rock's statements about the 88th annual ceremony scheduled for next month are far more pungent than those of the other boycotters, because he compared the 2016 Academy Awards with a "White BET Awards show."

Well, that's exactly the point, isn't it? There isn't a WET, a 'White Entertainment Television', and if there were, it would be marginalized as racist and bigoted. It's not even as if White people, as we count them, control Hollywood; all of the major motion picture studios are owned and controlled by Jews, who exercise that influence to churn out one piece of anti-White propaganda thinly disguised as 'entertainment' after another. This is pretty common knowledge even in the mainstream, where apolitical folks get their news from the same tribe which makes their movies.

What award should blacks be given for the destruction of our culture, our civilization, and our society? What reparations are they owed for the increased costs to feed, attempt to educate, house, and incarcerate them?

Back in 1968, before I and most reading this were born, Dr. Revilo P. Oliver gave a speech entitled 'What We Owe Our Parasites'. In that epic masterpiece, he clearly outlined that we have given far too much, already, to those who seek our destruction as a people. Over the nearly half century since, things haven't gotten any better. Every day, Whites are the victims of rapes and robberies and murders at the hands of nonWhites, particularly blacks, often inspired and motivated by Hollywood's Jewish propaganda. How should we repay them for the ongoing genocide of our people? How can we express our appreciation for the declining White percentage of both the U.S. and the world's population, and the declining future outlook for our children, and theirs? With more Awards show nominations? I think we all know the answer.

Chris, your Award is coming, and it may well be televised, but none of us will care to hear your acceptance speech. There will be far too many others lined up behind you on the scaffolds.

To Lone wolf or Not to Lone wolf that is the Question

By: Pastor Paul R. Mullet

For many years if not decades now I have heard the statement “I am a lone wolf” and I have always responded, “okay, well if that is what you want.” But as time has gone on I have come to realize that it is not the proper answer and it is not the proper thing that a person should be saying in this day and age.

I know that this topic is going to cause a lot of trouble and many people are going to start making accusations and assumptions about me and that is fine, I am a big boy and can handle that. But after you read what I have to say then I pray that you will at least have the courage or the fortitude to at least write to me and give your opinion on this subject matter and we can talk about it like men.

There are many different verses in the Holy Bible that I can quote that clearly state that “Lone Wolf” is NOT THE ANSWER. I will not quote them all here but only reference a few, and I pray that you will take it upon yourself to research the Holy Bible for the rest of them. Now I will be quoting out of the Septuagint (LXX) and the Anointed Standard Translation (AST) for those that do not have these Books I would get them as most of my sermons will be based out of these two books.

Now let us begin with the very first verse that clearly states the simple fact that “Lone Wolf” is NOT THE ANSWER: Genesis 1:18 (LXX) states “And the Lord God said, ‘It is not good that the man should be alone, let us make for him a help suitable to him.’” Now this verse has several references and for those that have the eyes to see and the ears to hear know what this verse is about, but for this study it means this, the Lord God clearly makes it known that the man “Adam” should not be alone in the world, and that he is to have a “help” that is suitable to him. If God had intended for us to be “Lone Wolf” do you really think that he would have made that statement? NO! For we know or at least you should know that God does not make mistakes, nor does he “change His mind” as some would like to think.

Genesis 1:22 (LXX) states: “And God formed the rib which He took from Adam into a woman, and brought her to Adam.” Once again we see that we were never meant to be alone nor are we to do things alone or “Lone Wolf” as many would like to think. These are but only two verses in many which clearly stated that “LONE WOLF IS NOT THE ANSWER”. One must realize that this kind of mentality is not acceptable to God, nor was or is His plan for the White Race to do things by themselves.

Now let me make but only a very small reference to another story from the Holy Bible here that will once again prove that working in a “Lone Wolf” mentality is not only laughable but impossible as well. Let us look at Noah for example. Now let us say that Noah was to build the Ark by himself, and act that would have been impossible and would have taken him lets say 50 years. Do you really think that God in all His wisdom and power really wanted to have the earth and His people suffer longer than they already had? Do you think that God had a plan placed for Noah and His family that was maybe just maybe a plan to have them work as a unit together to become more of a cohesive BODY WORKING TOWARDS THE BETTERMENT OF A COMMON GOAL? “Why yes Pastor, that makes perfect sense to me. Working together for the common good, working together as one does make sense.” And, my friends why wouldn't it? Working together as a UNIT together for the betterment of our RACE for GODS RACE instead of being a house divided is far better than working by yourself, you can accomplish so much more if you place your differences to the side. I understand the old adage and I hate to use this but it seems this may be the only statement that some will fully understand; “There are too many chiefs and not enough Indians’ in the White Power movement. To many people wanting to be “Leaders” when some of them can not even lead themselves out of a wet paper bag. I know that this has spoiled some of you into thinking that being a “Lone Wolf” is the answer but I am telling you that it is NOT, and for you CHRISTIAN members of the movement or you CHRISTIAN members of the Cause as I like to call it, this is really NOT THE ANSWER FOR YOU. You should know this if you have any understanding of the Holy Bible at all.

You see right now folks, it is Satan working within those who claim “Lone Wolf” activism, it is called “A House Divided” and the old adage is true; “A house divided can not survive.” It is weak and its structure is unsafe, it is unable to hold together the protective “roof” that protects those on the inside (the women and children, those that hold our future). Satan’s strategy from the beginning has been a very deliberate and diabolical one, and he has found it in the “Lone Wolf” activism within the White Power Movement. What a better way to Divide and Conquer than to place this mentality upon some of our brethren?

As I stated in the very beginning of this article I know that some of you will not like this, but I do not care, I am here to speak the truth. I will speak the truth even if it means losing those that have been with this Church for a long time. I can not shy away from Gods message nor His true words. The message of God is clear and TRUE to those that will listen to it. Once you hear the truth you can not go back into the darkness, and pretend you didn't hear it. I will not teach or preach watered down Christianity like some of the preachers and teachers you are getting your messages from even today. My message is TRUTH hence the name DIVINE TRUTH. If you do not want the DIVINE TRUTH so be it, but the DIVINE TRUTH is what you will get each and every time you get this publication.

The message is not going to be an easy pill to swallow, nor is it going to be an easy one to understand because it is meant for only the TRUE RACE OF GOD, and not those who pretend to be HIS CHOSEN few, but the true remnant. We are HIS PEOPLE not some watered down version that will speak half truths. We are not some half truth speaking Christian Identity organization that will feed you little pieces of this or that. We provide you with the whole picture and it is your duty as a CHRISTIAN to research and find the truth, we are the remnant of a great and Honorable people, we are descendants of KINGS, we are descendants of JESUS THE ANOINTED, and as such we are RULERS OF NOT ONLY OURSELVES BUT THE WORLD!

Now act like it, and place the childish “Lone Wolf” mentality behind you and join the army of GOD! Do not play into the devil’s game anymore but do the right thing and bring forth your duty as a CHRISTIAN and do what you are born to do. ACT AS WHITE CHRISTIANS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Choices

By: Sara from WAU

In 1970 America it was neither popular, cool, or even normal to find yourself pregnant without a husband. It actually brought shame on your family. So when Mary found herself pregnant by a man she knew she could not be married to, she knew she needed to make plans fast. She told her parents she was off to college and went to live in another city with a Catholic foster family. The family she was placed with was very loving towards her and she enjoyed her pregnancy. She gave birth to a beautiful, healthy baby girl. She eventually moved back home to her parents, who helped raise the lucky little girl as their own. When Mary is asked if she ever regretted the choice she made, she just smiles and says, "It wasn't a choice, I knew there was life inside of me. Just because it was going to be a challenge didn't change that. I made the initial choice that led to the pregnancy. My daughter didn't need to pay the ultimate consequence for my decision."

In 2012 America abortion is legal, and although controversial, unfortunately is more acceptable- especially to those with no regard for human life. I found myself in a Fetal Medicine office. Due to my age, my pregnancy was considered high risk. My husband and I had just seen a 3-D ultrasound of our daughter. The doctor wanted to discuss our next options, because it was unclear by the ultrasound whether there were medical complications or possible birth defects. After explaining each option, he looked at us and asked if a severe defect was found, if we were prepared to end the pregnancy. The test would be expensive and there was a timeline to legally end the pregnancy. It also didn't pay to go through with the tests if we were determined to carry to term. So many thoughts go through your head at a moment like that but there were only two that mattered to me. I had just seen what my daughter looked like, she wasn't a cell, she was a baby. Forty-two years earlier, my Mom had never even thought it was a choice not to have me, even though she knew her life would be a challenge. I solidly told the doctor 'no', I would never end the pregnancy. He reminded me of my age and the possible problems. I walked out of that doctor's office and never second guessed myself. In December of that year, I gave birth to a beautiful, completely healthy little girl.

I am a firm believer that every action has a consequence. If you choose to have sex, one of the consequences of that could be pregnancy. It really is a simple choice to either not have sex or protect yourself. If you become pregnant, why should that baby pay with their life for your action?

Take the challenge, and Adopt a Bruder.

Pastor Paul Mullet and Divine Truth Ministries have donated this Aryan Nations plaque to be auctioned off for the Adopt a Bruder program. Made in 2011, this wooden piece is an awesome part of history. Since the Bruder Schweigen's start is intertwined with Aryan Nations, this is a fitting item to be donated to the program. The auction will run till Wednesday, March 16th. All of the winning amount will be divided among the remaining four members of the Bruder Schweigen that are still inside. Bidding will start at 50 USD. Please send your bids to wau_wi@yahoo.com.

Remember this is to benefit these great men and let them know they will never be forgotten.

Hail The Order!
